John 14:6-14 (verse 6)
September 5, 2026

This is what my S.O.A.P. Bible Study looks like this morning. I've left a separate page for your personal notes. Feel free to share with family and friends!

Scripture: John 14:6

Jesus said to him, "I am the way, the truth, and the life. No one can come to the Father except through me".

Observation: What stands out to you the most in this text, what do you see, hear, feel?

- Jesus images the Father to his disciples through His words.
- Jesus and the Father are one.
- Jesus leaves room for his disciples to believe what He says or the works that speak for Him and of the Father.

Assessment: This is how I summarized the text. What do these scriptures say to you?

We must be satisfied with the representatives the Father in heaven has sent, Jesus and those who would come later by divine appointment (John 17:20)

We often look for something other than what God reveals of Himself...in this case His Son – Jesus the Christ and King that was promised to God's covenant people in the Old Testament.

Prayer: Lord I can have a tendency to be a bit suspicious of others, especially if I do not know them; even if You have sent them my way! Oh Lord help me accept what truth You are revealing to me even when and if it is challenging my understanding.
Thank You, Amen

What does this text say about others? Jesus was speaking to a group of people.

People demanded Jesus to prove who He was. In what ways do you feel like you have to prove yourself to others?

What can I learn about myself, my relationship with Jesus and the Father; my relationship with those whom I spend most of my time?

What might be some concerns in your life that have the possibility of causing you to detour your faith in Jesus and what the Father has for you to do for His Kingdom?
